- New subtitle 14: Supervisory board
- New article 14.1: inserted the following text:

Powers of the supervisory board

“The supervisory board is responsible for the general policy and strategy of the company and has the power to perform all acts that are exclusively reserved to it by the applicable law. The supervisory board drafts all reports and proposals in accordance with books 12 and 14 of the Code of Companies and Associations.

It supervises the management board and decides, after the adoption of the annual accounts, by separate vote on the discharge to be granted to the members of the management board.

- Article 14 (new article 14.2): replaced by the following text:

“In the event of a casual vacancy in the supervisory board, the remaining members of the supervisory board have the right to temporarily fill such vacancy until the shareholders’ meeting appoints a new member of the supervisory board. The validity of the convening notice cannot be challenged if all members of the supervisory board are present or validly represented.”

- Article 17 (new article 14.5): replaced by the following text:

“The supervisory board may validly deliberate only if at least half of its members are present or represented. If this quorum is not satisfied, a new meeting may be convened with the same agenda, which will be able to validly deliberate and resolve provided that at least two members are present or represented. Members of the supervisory board who, in accordance with applicable law, may not participate in the deliberation and the vote are not included to determine whether the quorum has been reached.

Supervisory board members can be present at the meeting by electronic communication means, such as, among others, phone- or videoconference, provided that all participants to the meeting can communicate directly with all other participants. In such case, the meeting is deemed to take place at the office of the company, unless agreed upon differently by the supervisory board. The same applies to meetings of the supervisory board to be held in the presence of a notary public, it being understood, however, that in such case at least one member of the supervisory board or the meeting's secretary shall physically attend the meeting in the presence of the notary public and that the meeting is deemed to take place at the notary public's office, unless agreed upon differently by the supervisory board. The minutes of the meeting shall mention the manner in which the members of the supervisory board were present.

With respect to items that were not mentioned in the agenda, the supervisory board can deliberate validly only with the consent of the entire supervisory board and insofar all members are present in persona. Such consent is deemed to be given if no objection is made according to the minutes.

Each member of the supervisory board can give a power of attorney to another member to represent him at a meeting of the supervisory board and to vote in his place, by normal letter, by e-mail or by any other means of communication replicating a printed document.

The resolutions of the supervisory board are taken by simple majority of the votes cast. Blank and invalid votes are not included in the votes cast, neither in the numerator nor in the denominator. In case of a tie, the chairman has the casting vote.

Supervisory board resolutions may be approved by unanimous written consent of all members, unless otherwise provided in these articles of association and save for decisions requiring a notarial deed.

“The deliberations of the supervisory board are enacted in minutes that are signed by the chairman and by the members of the supervisory board who wish to do so. This adjournment of the decision regarding the approval of the financial statements puts an end to the deliberation and renders invalid the resolutions passed with regard to the financial statements, including the resolutions on the discharge of the members of the supervisory board and the auditors. All shareholders shall be called to attend the next meeting and admitted, provided that they have completed the formalities laid down in the articles of association, and this regardless of whether or not they attend the first meeting either in person or by proxy.
